Closing Exerc'ses and Distribution of Medals and Diplomas to the Piptis of Baker and Navy Hill Schools.

BAKER SCHOOL.

The weather yesterday was very impropitious for the commencement of the closing exercises in the colored public schools of the city, but nevertheless the attendance at the Third-Street Methodist church, where the medals and diplomas were awarded to the pupils of Baker school, of which Mr. T. P. Crump is principal, was unprecedentedly large, and everything passed off very pleasantly, although the programme was entirely too long. Among those present were Messrs. James H. Binford, superintendent of schools ; Affred Moses, secretary of the school board William English, M. L. Straus, and Rev. J. Z. Tyler. The exercises were opened by ten-dollar prize, and took occasion to make reading the nineteenth Psalm by Patsy kindly mention of Messrs. Barron and Dur-Keiley, which, by the way, was one of the most interesting features of the programme. Then followed dialogues, chants, songs, recitations, readings. &c. Miss Ellen F. Brown presided at the organ, and performed her part very gracefully. The gem of the exercises was a song entitled "The Barkeeper," which was sung remarkably well by two of the children who contested for the Barron and Durkee prize of $10 in gold. Among the other musical selections, which were admirably rendered. were the "Reaper's Chorus" and the Guardian Angel," a trio and chorus. The most amusing dialogue was "The Desf Sweetheart," which was recited by two girls and a boy.

THE AWARDS.

At the conclusion of the regular exercises Mr. Binford proceeded to award the Barron and Darkee $10 gold prize to the colored girl who sang the best song. Mr. Binford read the report of the musical committee-Messrs. facts, and remanded the child to the William E. Tanner, M. S. Turner, John D. Redford, and Marion J. Dimmock. NAVY-HILL SCHOOL.

NAVY-HILL SCHOOL. The seven colored schools comprised in the Navy-Hill group, of which Miss M. E. Knowles is principal, had their closing exercises yesterday evening at Ebenezer church, on Leigh street. The children appeared dressed in their best clothes, and beneath all their fluery happy hearts were beating, and their faces were wreathed with smiles at the conclusion of the session's arduous studies and the prospect of three months' holiday. The occasion was certainly one of profound enjoyment to them. The audience was only limited by the capacity of the ebuseh; for, after the galleries and all other available places were fil ed, many persons were compelled to turn away, being unable so much as to get inside the doors. Among those present were members of the School Board, a considerable number of white ladies and gentlemen interested in the cause of popular education, and parents and friends of the pupils, and a liberal sprinkling of babies. The last-named "put their mouths in " where they were neither wanted nor expected, and more than once came near making Superintendent Binford lose his ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At the last meet temper, which is ordinarily a hard thing to MOND COLLEGE.—The students of Richmond on E.
